Reason and Description of the Product Change

The laser eye safety classification label on our Helios product lines is being updated to have improved accordance with IEC 60825.1 – 2014 standard across multiple regions. The label will be updated for cameras with serial number 233701079 and higher. Please note that no changes have been made to the VECSELS used on the camera or the IEC standard which the camera conforms to, and the change is limited to label only.
